You'll Find Lots of "Sure to Please" Gifts in the Boys' Store

—useful, practical gifts—the kind of gifts they'll be glad to get and that they will take care of and keep. It means a lot to the youngsters to know that their clothes come from the same store their "dad's" come from.

The boys themselves will really enjoy shopping in their own store—they like our pleasant, friendly salesmen—men who know "kids" from head to toe, and what they like to wear. They'll like the many things we've done for them here, too, including the barber shop for their exclusive use, with a jolly barber who knows a lot of "stories," besides knowing just how "regular guys" want their hair cut.

when it was heard at Trinitas Auditorium in direct comparison with

Three Noted Artists

ALICE VERLET Operatic Soprano
VICTOR YOUNG Pianist and ROBERT VELTEN, Violinist

was an accomplishment never before attempted with any other phonograph.
This wonderful demonstration last night proved to nearly three thousand people that the New Edison RE-CREATES all forms of music—the voice, the violin, and the piano—with equal exactitude.

The great audience that witnessed this unique achievement was astounded to find that it was impossible to detect the slightest difference between the RE-CREA-TIONS of the New Edison and the performance of the living artists.

ROVE MERRILL WAS ARRESTED.

Defense Witnesses in Libel Suit Trial.

Raid on Pool Hall,
Trip in Patrol Wagon.

Testimony to be Given Next Monday.

Under the charter the Board of Supervisors will organize next Monday. It is stated that Jonathan S. Dodge will have no opposition for re-election as chairman of the new board. It also is understood that no change will be made in the present committees. Chairman Dodge and Supervisors McClellan and Bean were re-elected, so that no new member sits on the board.

There was a big increase in the sale of tickets to the rodeo, to be held at Exposition Park the 18th and 19th inst., through which medium most of the fund is to be raised, and many substantial contributions were made at the City Hall.

Mrs. J. T. Anderson, president of the Council of Community Service, stated that there is greater need this Christmas of caring for the city's poor, than ever before, owing to the housing situation, which has driven many into inadequate dwelling places, and has even deprived them of many of the necessities of life.

The Mayor's Christmas baskets, clothing and other gifts to be made through the expenditure of the fund will be given by the Council of Community Service. Mrs. Anderson said yesterday:

"We are being flooded with requests for help from families that are in need. Each case is investigated, and our list of those who are deserving of help, and who must be taken care of, is larger than the list we had at this time a year ago."

"Let there be a quick and generous response to the call of our Mayor
to provide a Christmas fund."

Five hundred units of the Council of Community Service are looking after the sale of tickets for the rodeo, which will be the greatest Wild West show ever staged in Los Angeles. Mrs. Anderson yesterday
issued an appeal to all of the units
for united and energetic co-operation.

Indications are that 2500 families must be provided for this year. Last year the council, in dispensing the municipal Christmas fund, cared for 1914 families.

Tickets for the rodeo will be on sale at all the leading hotels, and the City Hall, and through the 500
units of the Council of Community Service.

Clearing away all legal obstacles to the building of the Second-street tunnel, the City Council yesterday denied twelve protests which had been filed by property owners who declared that their assessments were excessive.

The collection of the $1,121,168.45 in assessments will now begin. John Hayes, who has the contract, is expected to begin work on the bore next month and to have the improvement completed in a year and a half.

1914 families.

Tickets for the rodeo will be on
units of the Council of Community

street tunnel, the City Council yesterday denied twelve protests which
had been filed by property owners
were excessive.

Hayes, who has the contract, is ex-
a half.

must be provided for this year. Last

FOLKS TALK MORE THAN EVER HERE.

Sixty Thousand Phones Installed in Less Than Two Years, Powley Says.

Pointing out that the company has installed 60,000 telephone instruments in this city within twenty-three months, K. R. Powley, commercial superintendent of the Southern California Telephone Company, told members of the Rotary Club yesterday that the company cannot keep up with the demand for telephone service here unless the State Railroad Commission grants it an increase in rates.

Mr. Powley stated that the company has strung 21,000 miles of wire, installed eighty-five miles of conduit, set 2500 poles and installed 25,883 telephones since Jan. 1, 1918, and that it has bought $2,800,000 worth of materials since that date, and is expecting delivery on another $1,000,000 worth soon.

According to Mr. Powley's figures the city now has 145,000 telephones in use, or one to every four persons.
Moreover, the demand for telephone service since the war has been unprecedented, Mr. Powley declared.

In conclusion Mr. Powley said that when the two telephone companies consolidated it was agreed that no rate increases would be asked for within five years. He asserted, however, that in view of the heavy outlay for extensions and operating expenses the company is not able to pay the sort of return on the investment which is expected by financiers, and that unless a satisfactory adjustment of rates goes into effect next year it will be unable to keep pace with the tremendous growth of the city.

are in need. Each case is investigat-
taken care of, is larger than the
ago."

"Let there be a quick and generous
to provide a Christmas fund."

Five hundred units of the Council
of Community Service are looking
Wild West show ever staged in Los Angeles. Mrs. Anderson yesterday
for united and energetic co-operation.

THIRTY CROOK.
The man who burglarized the home of his former sweetheart and stole all the possessions he had given her doesn't have to buy trifling stamps to save his money.

CARRYING THE CASH.
A Chicago man who was ordered to pay his divorced wife $30,000 of cash alimony turned the money over in court in the form of 6000 $5 bills. But the woman never complained at the burden she had to carry. She bore up under it bravely.

WARSAW SAW WAR.
The Red Cross proposes to distribute 500,000 Christmas presents in Poland. And, at that, they will be in the nature of feeding the hungry and clothing the naked.
There wouldn't be much of a Santa Claus in Poland this season were it not for the Red Cross.

THE BILL COLLECTOR.
It costs the Internal Revenue Department 50 cents to collect each $100 of government taxation. Last year it cost 53 cents. This may not be efficiency, but it is the path toward efficiency. In a few hundred years Uncle Sam will be able to collect the war taxes with his eyes shut.

THE BRUNETTES.
There are 110,000 colored residents in the city of Baltimore. That forms quite a respectable group of brunettes by itself and is an increase of nearly 30 per cent in the decade. At the same time the colored population in Louisville has fallen off. Prohibition hasn't had anything to do with the movement, either.

NOT TO BE TRUSTED.
Lewine and Trutsky have openly sought to break the relations between America and Japan. They have sought to create an "agrarian revolution in England and they have tried to establish the Commune in this country. They admit that it is their desire and purpose to destroy all existing governments and that any treaties or agreements they make are simply for the purpose of gaining time or advantage in pressing the revolution. Any people making an agreement with them of any sort will learn to regret it. It is too dangerous a thing to even try and save the Russians from themselves. Let them accomplish their own deliverance. It will give them the greater pride and glory when it comes.

KNOCKING THE BREW.
Here's a hint for the prohibitionists:
In a certain city the water supply of the town put a crimp in all the home brewing. The yeast refused to do its normal duty and gallons and gallons of mash were wasted. It was impossible to develop a kick when the city water was used as a base. Then the home brewers started to do their own kicking. But if the prohibition-ists want to make Los Angeles bone dry let them sneak out some night and dump a million dollars' worth of chlorine into the aqueduct. After that every yeast cake will become a dud. Instead of starting things it will simply curl up and die and the home brewers will wonder why they don't get action for their money.

LOSING ALL ROUND.
Restaurants in St. Louis, whose cooks and waiters have been on a strike for seven weeks, have used the labor unions to which their employees belonged for $100,000 damages. This is because of the picketing of the places by waitresses in the effort to drive business away. There are four unions involved and it remains to be seen whether a judgment against them is any good. If it is it will be next in order for the strikers to sue some of the leaders and walking delegates for damages because of the loss of their jobs. As it is, there has been a strike running for two months and everybody is out on the deal. The restaurants are running with other help, but their business has been damaged. The striking employees have lost their places and the public has been bothered and inconvenienced.
It's a losing proposition all around. But where is the strike that isn't?

SPEEDING UP.
According to the police reports there were 2097 traffic accidents during November, in which 490 persons were injured—twenty-two of them fatally. Of minor accidents, in which the damage was trivial or the injuries slight, there were other thousands. It is notorious that not one-half of the traffic casualties in the city reach the knowledge or attention of the police.
A large number of these little tragedies of the road are due to the fact that somebody was in an unnecessary hurry. No man can possibly be in the haste in which he says he is when speeding his motor. A generation ago he thought he was doing well when he drove Dobbin at six miles an hour. Probably he was as well off then as now. Certainly he was. Now it is the rate at which the hasty young man of today delivers your morning's milk.
Even in Los Angeles the passion for speed is costing an average of almost a human life a day. What it is doing in the whole land makes a staggering total.

BIRTHDAY OF THE TIMES.

Today is the birthday of The Times, marking the fortieth annual milestone in its momentous history. Looking backward over the files one finds the entire history of the growth of Los Angeles from a sleepy town of 12,000 inhabitants to the metropolis of the West. Woven into its news columns and editorials are the real, gripping events and incidents that make up the most remarkable history of city building ever told, for Los Angeles stands out conspicuously among the municipalities of America in its achievement, and it has ever been and will continue to be the function of The Times to faithfully chronicle from day to day all the worth-while happenings of the great community which it serves.

The Times was first issued Dec. 4, 1881.
It was then a little folio sheet. Gen. Harrison Gray Otis became the principal owner and editor of the paper on Aug. 1, 1882, and that year it was enlarged. In 1887 The Times was again enlarged and became a standard quarto, seven-column newspaper.
It had the full Associated Press report at that time. In 1888 the Sunday Times consisted of sixteen pages. Now it is more than ten times as large, the biggest newspaper in all the world.

In politics The Times has been consistently Republican throughout its career. It has endeavored at all times to print the news of the day faithfully and accurately, to support and accelerate the forward march of the community and to champion vigorously the cause of industrial freedom and sound national and local policies.

The amazing growth of Los Angeles and the growth of The Times to be the world's biggest newspaper are interlocking. The Times has kept pace with the onward and upward trend of local affairs and has aided to the best of its ability and with all its energies the city's progress.

In 1881 Los Angeles, San Diego and Santa Barbara were about the same size and there was considerable rivalry between the towns. San Francisco was the one big city of the State, with many times the population of Los Angeles. Even then citizens of Los Angeles had great confidence in the future of their city and confidently predicted that Los Angeles would be larger than either San Diego or Santa Barbara.
One ambitious merchant even cast discretion to the winds and declared at a meeting of the City Council that some day Los Angeles would be as large as Minneapolis.

On New Year's Day, 1885, only a little over a quarter of a century ago, The Times printed an optimistic and encouraging editorial on the prospects of growth for Los Angeles and Southern California. The Times then estimated the population of the city at 70,000 and predicted that if a harbor should be developed at San Pedro and a railroad line be built to Salt Lake the city would soon attain a population of 150,000.

The Angelenos of those days, while freely predicting that this city would be greater than any California city except San Francisco, hardly dared raise its eyes to the lofty population level of that city. To even whisper that the northern city would some time be displaced as the State's largest city was too presumptuous for even the most hardy and imaginative citizens of the Southland.

Yet Los Angeles, even in so short a time, has passed San Francisco with a population approximately equal to that of San Francisco and San Diego combined. It is credited by the United States Census Bureau with being the tenth city of the nation in population and in industrial importance. Its people are openly and confidently proclaiming their belief that their western metropolis will rise higher than tenth place in the list of American cities, that it will even surpass Boston and other much older cities.
The destiny of Los Angeles is more clearly seen in the light of past progress.

It is fitting, therefore, that as Los Angeles develops and grows in size and vigor its leading newspaper, The Times, should keep pace with corresponding advancement. The city of Los Angeles is conspicuous because of its astonishing progress, and The Times stands out among the newspapers of the world because of its prominence, its far-reaching facilities for getting world news and its overwhelming superiority in volume of classified advertising and other significant features.

Vivid and eventful as have been the events of the past thirty-one years in the history of Los Angeles and The Times, the future promises to be even more eventful.
Los Angeles will continue to increase in size and scope of activities. It will pass many other communities in the race. Likewise it will be the earnest endeavor of The Times to continue to keep a step ahead of this wondrous city of ours.

GOVERNMENT HELP.

The government is to be asked to refund the debts of farmers who were holding their grain and crops for rises that they could not pay and are now facing a falling market. Some people expect the government to respond to every symptom of distress. It's a wonder there isn't a measure up for the relief of those thoughtless and improvident persons who bet money on Jimmy Cox. Many persons look upon their government as something wholly paternal. When required, it is expected to provide them means of livelihood and take care of the widow and orphan. The government is expected to bring down the price of bread with one hand to satisfy the laborer and boost the price of wheat with the other to ease the life of the farmer.
Whenever there is anything the matter with a man's finances or his wife's temper he appeals to his government about it and expects a solution by the next mail. The country would be better off if the administration could let the political wild and forced people to rely upon themselves.

Quite a number of Democrats declare they are tired of party government. It has been a meal ticket for a lot of them.

LOOK DEEP AND PUNISH WELL.

The investigations pertaining to the Volstead Act, which are bringing to light such wholesale violations and shameless evasions, have a weighty bearing upon the enforcement of all law. The quest must be deep and wide and high and there must be no let-up until every culprit who has sought to belittle the Constitution of the United States is brought to punishment. The Times heartily indorses the activities of the Federal authorities and believes that it is the duty of every citizen to aid in bringing the guilty to book supporting the strict enforcement of the law and insuring that no man may bring any laws of this country into ridicule and contempt, no matter what his personal opinion as to the wisdom or desirability of any individual law.

The revelations indicate that a number of people authorized to enforce the law of the country have but seized upon their responsibility and trust as an opportunity for personal gain and the dispensation of special privilege. Privileged persons under the act have in many cases shamefully abused those rights, and that in the name of religion and medicine, two professions that stand highest in the public estimation.
The whole thing is a sordid exposure of incredible treachery and dishonesty, and if the offenders fail to reap the full reward of their despicable violation of "Prohibition," the government will inevitably be brought into disrepute.

It will not be sufficient to punish the small fry if the "higher-ups" go scot free.
Indeed, the more influential the standing of the culprit the greater should be his punishment; for the doctrine of "Noblesse Oblige" demands superior conduct of those in high places. And the indictments to date would indicate that persons in high places are unpleasantly involved in the investigations.

The Times fully appreciates the distinction between indictment and conviction and that a thoroughly innocent man may suffer indictment and still satisfy a jury of his innocence. The Times believes it will be indeed. And the country at large will be grateful, indeed, if such is the fortune of the many of the accused facing indictment today. But there is no question that wholesale violations of the act have been the rule, and it is imperative that such a condition be unequivocally repudiated by the public and the proven sneaks and traitors condemned to punishment.

There is nothing in all the world that can so completely bring a country into contempt and undermine the prestige of its government as grafting and dishonorable officials. The whole fabric of the Constitution must crumble if the laws for its enforcement are in dishonorable and traitorous hands. Yet, judging by the exposures cropping up in all parts of the country, the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act have been regarded chiefly as a joke, a glad opportunity for graft, by many of the men trusted, honored and paid for the responsibilities intrusted to them. Nothing worse pertained in the old Russian regime under the Czar, or in Persia under the Shah, in China under its incompetent em-perors. This sort of thing is the shining attribute of rotten governments tottering to their fall, yet we find it rampant today in our own beloved country, where it would seem incredible that any man could be found willing to cheat and shame his nation, bring it to ridicule and disgrace. If the Constitution of their country is not sacred to them nothing can be.

Since these exposures had to come, let them reach out to the farthestmost culprit.
Every citizen with an ounce of patriotism in his veins must appreciate the importance of earnestly upholding the laws of this great country. There can be no half measures about it. Every single one of the articles of the Constitution and its amendments must be enforced. Our country's honor demands it. We cannot pick and choose which we will accept and which repudiate. Every last one of them is a basic creed which the whole country must adhere to. See to it, loyal citizens, that you uphold the Federal au-

A CORNER IN GODS.

England is the only important nation in the world today which is dogmatic about its own established state religion.
Having placed her official stamp upon one particular type of belief, she has immediately turned around and attempted a corner in world religions and has succeeded at it, if holding holy places means anything.

In possessing Palestine she has the religion which created both Judaism and Christianity. In her grip on India she includes the Garden of Lumbini, where, amid splashing fountains and the soft voices of the doves, Buddha was miraculously born. In her mastery of Arabia she holds the two shrines of Mohammedanism: Mecca, where the prophet was reared; and Medina, where he built up his elaborate system of laws and laid the foundations for a vast empire. Through her treaty with Japan she has a deciding voice in Shantung, where Confucius is buried and where the strange faith or system of etiquette which bears his name has its roots.
As an inevitable result of entering into world politics, or rather world-wide rule, England has been forced to take very seriously the great religions. Incidentally, she has more Buddhists and more Mohammedans and probably more Confucianists under her rip than she has members of her established church. But it is in her contact with Mohammedanism and Buddhism that England has learned what a perilous and exciting pastime dabbling in creeds can become. Once in the business of using religions in the tasks of administration she has had no chance to turn back and has been going in deeper year by year.

Cool Lawrence, an agnostic possessing to a marked degree the power of handling a fantastic race, played during the war the game of tribal and religious influence in Arabia with consummate skill. His policy was to capture the affections and utilize the faith of the Bedouins for his own retired from Arabian affairs England has entered upon a bolder policy of penetration into Mohammedanism. Not content with holding its shrines and with the overlordship of a vast majority of its devotees, she has set out to capture the Caliphate, or, rather, the authority of the political and the religious world. Taking no chances, she is secretly backing with vast sums both of the leading aspirants to that high position.
The situation in India, which is really

NERVY THEFTS IN TWO STORES.

Youth With False Mustache Grab Purse; Bold Greek Empties Cash Drawer.

A young man wearing an easily detected false mustache yesterday wandered into the millinery store of Mrs. Grace Hoag at 707 South Hill street, nonchalantly picked up a purse containing $20 and wandered out again. After he had gone the matter was reported to the police.

A short time later E. J. Fleming of 803 South Hill street saw a Greek enter the rear of the Fleming store, take $51 out of a drawer and escape.

PACOIMA DAM GIVEN APPROVAL.

Council Takes Steps for Forming Improvement District in Van Nuys.

The City Council yesterday afternoon went on record as favoring the building of the proposed Pacoima dam, and took steps to lay before the property owners in the Van Nuys district a plan to create a municipal improvement district in the territory which will be benefited by the improvement. The City Engineer was instructed to supply the City Attorney with the necessary data, setting the boundaries of the proposed district, in order that petitions may be prepared and circulated at Van Nuys calling for a special bond election.

Chief County Flood Control Engineer Reagan and City Engineer Griffin told the Councilmen the reasons for building the dam, saying that it will probably cost about $1,500,000, of which the State is to be asked for an appropriation of $800,000, the Van Nuys district, through the sale of forty-year bonds, will raise $500,000, and the remaining $200,000 will be appropriated by the county. City Engineer Griffin stated that the Van Nuys district, which is inside the city of Los Angeles, contains 14,400 acres and that a forty-year assessment at $10 an acre will be sufficient to pay the city's share of the cost of the dam. Each spring, the City Engineer stated, the city was forced to spend at least $10,000 to repair damage in Van Nuys caused by flood waters. He said that the building of the dam with the consequent creation of a large lake in the canyon and increased water supply to the farmers of the district is highly desirable. Y. A. Fattas, who owns a home in Pacoima Canyon, opposed the building of the dam as the site proposed in the narrow canyon and said that the flood waters could be controlled by other and less costly means.

The Scouts do not know what to do with it.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Save for a pronounced contraction of business, both as to volume and variety of issues traded in, dealing in the stock market today differed in no important essentials from those of recent frequent sessions.

Interest centered in Southern Pacific, which moved erratically.

Further curtailment or indefinite suspension of operations in many branches of industry, especially rubber and textiles, merely confirmed recognized conditions of the past few months, as set forth by commercial and financial authorities.

Mexican oils and the better grade of rails, excepting Southern Pacific, which continued heavy, were the chief elements of strength and activity, Mexican Petroleum making a net gain of five points and Reading about two points.

Shipping, motors and several of the equipment and food and leather specialties were under renewed pressure. Sales amounted to 739, 000 shares.

Money on call and time was quoted unchanged. Trading in foreign exchange was nominal and moderately reactionary, the Scandinavian centers proving an exception.

Railroad and utility bonds were heavy and the Liberty group showed slight gains and losses, with no feature to international. Total sales, by value, aggregated $14, 305,000. Old United States 5s and 4s lost 1/4 per cent on call.

DUN'S WEEKLY COMMENT.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Four things will signify of betterment in business and activity, if slow to appear, are rather more distinct than in the past. They are: (1) a recovery in the demand for goods, (2) a recovery in the demand for money, (3) a recovery in the demand for credit, and (4) a recovery in the demand for labor.

Science's Gift to the Builder

The scientific study and experience of two generations of plasters combined with extensive chemical research and practical building experience resulted in the perfection of this modern lathing material that overcomes all difficulties in the construction of plastered surfaces—both exterior and interior.

When properly plastered, walls and ceilings never crack in "Buttonlath" buildings. Years of practical use in thousands of structures have proven the durability and economy of this superior lathing material. Many builders and contractors are meeting the cost factor of today's building problems by specifying Buttonlath wherever a plaster base is required. Characteristic of its nature, Buttonlath is more than a mere lathing.
Fire-proof, Sound-deadener, Water-proof, Heat-insulator.

The success of Buttonlath has encouraged imitators—be sure of the genuine—ask for Buttonlath—for sale by all building material dealers.

FREE ZONE FOR HARBOR ASKED.

Henry M. Robinson Urges It to Boost Commerce.

Thinks New Congress Likely to Consider Change.

Materials for Export Could be Landed Without Duty.

Designation of Los Angeles Harbor as a free port, with a specified free zone in which imported raw materials designed for manufacture for export trade could be landed without the payment of customs charges, is advocated in a letter sent yesterday by Henry M. Robinson, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and to the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, the World Traders, the Municipal League and the Harbor Commission. Individuals to whom the letter has also been sent include Senator-elect Shortridge, Senator Johnson, Congressman Osborne, Gov. Stephens and Mayor Snyder.

Los Angeles will become one of the great ports and industrial centers of the world if a free zone is created at the harbor, similar to that which made Hamburg great before the war, says Mr. Robinson, who is president of the First National Bank of this city and who in 1915 was executive assistant to the chairman of the United States Shipping Board. Mr. Robinson, a recognized authority on foreign trade and finance, later succeeded Edward N. Hurley as the Shipping Board's special commissioner at Paris, during the peace conference, and saved to this country the German ships seized in American harbors in 1917. He declined an offer to be made director-general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, but this year was one of the thirty-five American bankers called together to form the committee's group in the consortium which is to finance China.

Robinson's letter on the free port project, follows, in part: "With the change in both our national and international policies, which change must inevitably come with the change of administration on March 4, I am wondering if the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, as representative of the commercial interests of Southern California, would not deem it advisable to consider very carefully the desirability of creating a free port and a free zone at the harbor, when legislation permits such creation, in order to develop our foreign trade in the Pacific."

STARTED LAST YEAR. "As far back as July, 1919, the Boston Chamber of Commerce, the Chicago Association of Commerce, the Merchants' Association of New York, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association of Baltimore, the Newport News Chamber of Commerce, the New Orleans Association of Commerce, the Philadelphia Board of Trade, the Savannah Board of Trade, the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce, the Free Zone Association, at this meeting, I understand, a representative of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce was present.

"The city of New York carried the problem of a free zone and the free port before Congress, but, under the Democratic administration the Ways and Means Committee of the House took adverse action. It is possible that under a new administration Congress might approach the problem from a more sympathetic viewpoint.

"The aim of free zoning, of course, is to create conditions permitting American manufacturers to import raw materials from foreign countries through specified harbors, and within specified zones to permit the manufacture and fabrication of such materials, either for re-export or for sale in domestic markets. Import duty to be paid only on that portion of such materials imported as are finally sold in domestic markets, while goods to be re-exported are manufactured within the prescribed zone, duty free.

NO CUSTOMS CHARGES. "A free zone as described as a district in, or adjacent to, a port where activity in commerce and industry, including sorting, refining, grading, mixing, assembling, manufacturing and selling may be carried on without customs charges or needless formalities.

"Before the war Hamburg was the greatest free port in the world, and, as Germany was a protective tariff nation, consideration of Hamburg's growth will give some idea of what a free port and free zone would mean to the port of Los Angeles.

"All England is a free port, but the physical operations in the districts surrounding Tilbury docks at London and the development of the huge manufacturing districts adjacent thereto, give some idea of the development which would follow the creation of a free zone at our own harbor.

"The conditions here are particularly advantageous for the development of the free zoning system, because most of our people could easily have establishments both within the free zone for transshipment and export business, and within the city of Los Angeles proper for their domestic operations. Our manufacturers are all lacking toward foreign markets, and, therefore, such of them as use imported raw materials, either exclusively or in part, would be able to locate export branch factories at this port.

"In the coming years of sharper commercial competition among the nations, it is inevitable that the United States government must place American business upon the same competitive footing as that enjoyed by the protective tariff nations which have free port and free zone advantages, and, as the port of Los Angeles lies almost directly upon the Great Circle route from the Panama Canal to the Orient, and as trade and mileage considered, the operating cost of rail transportation for two-thirds of the territory of the United States is favorable to Los Angeles as against San Francisco for the movement of goods from eastern and interior points to rail to use Pacific Coast, and inasmuch as at no distant date the actual cost of service must be taken as a basis for rail transportation rates, it would be given great consideration."

LIDS ON DANCING. No public dancing in Los Angeles after midnight on New Year's Eve, Friday, December 31, the City Council having yesterday denied request of public dance-hall proprietors that the ban be extended until 2 a.m. Secretary Barton of the Moral Efficiency Association endorsed the request, but a majority of the Councilmen opposed the extension, even disapproving a compromise until 1 a.m.

CITY'S GROWING, FIGURES SHOW.

More Folk Crossing Streets;
Fifth and Broadway
Leads in Totals.

Is the population of Los Angeles growing? It is, and here is the proof.

On May 24, last, 49,660 pedestrians crossed the street at Fifth and Broadway, whereas on November 21 the total was 81,172.

Now, Seventh and Broadway also is a busy corner, but it must take a back seat as compared to Fifth and Broadway, according to tabulations by engineers from the office of Chief Engineer Osborne of the Board of Public Utilities on the same dates. On May 24, last, these figures show, 61,689 persons crossed the street there, whereas the traffic total had increased to 75,351 on November 21.

While the reason for this count, the totals of which were made public yesterday, is that pedestrian traffic is growing so heavy here that the street cars are being held up at street intersections and the city must find some way to compel the people to step lively at the street intersections.

TO REDUCE BUSINESS LICENSE TAX

Council Underestimated the Total; Conaway Suggests Way to Make Amends.

That he will ask the City Council to order a 10 per cent reduction in the occupational or business tax was announced yesterday by Chairman Conaway of the Finance Committee, giving as his reason that the tax has brought into the city treasury $200,000 more than had been anticipated, and that the merchants are entitled to a refund.

When the budget for the present fiscal year was made up, it was estimated that the business tax, which has been protested by the merchants of the city, would return an income of $1,400,000. But up to December 1, the income from the tax during the calendar year 1920 had been $1,617,751.40, and it is estimated that the December returns will be about $50,000.

If the City Council adopts Mr. Conaway's plan, it is probable that the 10 per cent reduction plan will go into effect January 1.

Plan to Raise Boy Scout Fund in a Single Day.

To raise $35,000 within a day and thereby finance Boy Scout activities in Los Angeles for fourteen months ending Dec. 31, 1921, about 100 committeemen under the direction of Henry W. O'Melveny, will conduct a rapid-response campaign here next Tuesday. They are to call on about 800 Los Angeles citizens.

Mr. O'Melveny is the chairman of a committee of thirty members selected by the Los Angeles Council of the Boy Scouts of America. This committee will be acting in the canvass by detachments from the Rotary, Advertising, Lions, Optimist and Hurford Post Club. All these forces will meet at 12:15 p.m. Monday at the City Club and organize for their work.

The Boy Scout organization in Los Angeles has not asked the public for money during the last three years.

FINDS EXCHANGE BAR.

Halts Trade with Europe, Declares Attorney on Return Home.

Trade relations between Europe and this country are in an unbalanced condition, due to the continued low rate of exchange on European currency, and will continue to be so until the exchange becomes more nearly normal, declared W. H. T. Gahan, international corporation attorney, yesterday on his return from London, to his new offices in this city.

William T. Gahan, former Assistant Secretary of War, Mr. Gahan has established headquarters for numerous trade companies from both England and this country at 804 Black Building, making Los Angeles the pivotal point between Europe and the Orient.

At present, he said, ships are heavily laden going to Europe, but carry very little cargo returning to this country. Mr. Gahan expects to influence the investment of a great amount of English capital in this country.

ROUND UP SLACKERS.

Special Agents' Drive on Delinquent Taxpayers Bears Fruit.

Abundant fruit is being borne by the round-up of the special agents of the internal revenue office to bring to book the delinquent income and excess profit taxpayers, it was said yesterday.

This is indicated by the number of officers that have been assigned to U. S. Atty. O'Connor to compromise the claims of the government against individuals and corporations who have failed to make the proper report. Under the law these tenders of compromise must be approved by the United States Attorney before being accepted by the United States Treasury Department and that work is now going on. Most of these offers are accepted, as to do so obviates the taking of a district proceeding and possible action in law to collect the amount found due the government.

WOOLWINE VS. SCIENTISTS.

Christian Science treatment for himself and be healed, he should be entitled to call upon that method of healing, when his children are sick.

"It is unbelievable that any court could hold a parent guilty of a felony for relying upon Christian Science treatment for the healing of their children in this day and time, and surely no misdemeanor within the statutes would occur should the child pass on under that treatment."

"The query that has been expressed, 'Why was a physician not called?' illustrates the flimsy of adherence to long established customs."

"In looking over the death notices published in one of our daily papers, the fact is disclosed that for the week ending May 4, 1920, over 130 persons passed away. Doubtless, the majority of these died under the care of a regular physician and passed away in a regular and orthodox manner. Here the question may be legitimately asked: 'Why was a Christian Science practitioner not called?'"

"Judging by record of achievement, and realizing that in many cases Christian Science is employed only as a last resort, and frequently has saved the patient after all material methods have been exhausted, the failure to call in a Christian Science practitioner might well be denominated 'neglect,' and yet there has been no public condemnation nor criminal prosecution."

"When the allopathic method of healing has been established as a science and no deaths occur under its treatment, then may the health authorities make that method of treatment compulsory."

CHIROPRACTORS LOSE.

Two Convicted by Jury on Charge of Practicing Without License.

After three minutes of deliberation in one case and eight minutes in another, juries in Judge Willis's court yesterday found A. H. Parish and Delbert E. Tracy, chiropractors, guilty of violating the State Medical Act by practicing chiropractic without a license.

The trial of the Parish case, in which Thomas Morris, former Governor of Wisconsin, appeared as attorney for the defendant, began with the asking of permission to withdraw a plea of not guilty in order that a demurrer might be filed. The demurrer was overruled, a motion to dismiss was denied, and then the trial proceeded.

Tracy, who will be sentenced on Monday, was defended by attorneys Paul Schenck and Richard Kitzgale, Dep. Dist. Atty. Keyes prosecuted both cases.

VOTE NOT PROTESTED.

Governor of Lower California Cast Regular Ballot Last Sunday.

Gov. Balazoo of the northern district of Lower California, cast his ballot at Mexican last Sunday's Mexican Congressional elections without having it protested or voided by the polling booth clerk, according to a letter to The Times signed by Alfonso V. Schnabl, Jr., secretary to the Governor.

News accounts of the election sent out on November 30 declared that the Governor's right to vote was protested by the election clerk, who maintained that the Governor was not a citizen of California. This Mr. Schnabl denies, and declares that only the legal formality of inquiring the voter's address was complied with by the clerk when the Governor voted.

Already a large number of his supporters are canvassing the district in behalf of Commissioner Hamilton.
